DESCRIPTION:

This route begins with the departure from the Brač Airport and a flight over the beautiful beach Zlatni rat near Bol, one of the world's most famous beaches and windsurfer destinations. A beach that changes its shape after each change of wind and always looks different.

The flight continues to Vrboska, for many the most beautiful place on the island of Hvar, built around a deep bay with its delightful little bridges that connect the place into one romantic scene.

After that, we fly over the town of Jelsa and Stari Grad Plain, an agricultural landscape that was set up by the ancient Greek colonists and it is protected by UNESCO.

After the flight over Starigrad, the half-hour route ends by re-overflying the town of Bol and landing at the airport.
