DESCRIPTION:

Walking through cobbled paths we traverse unseen territories; learning about Split's captivating past as it slowly uncovers itself to us.

Discover the history and culture behind the medieval churches and hermit settlements hidden in the rocks at the very core of the park.

Starting at the Riva promenade, this tour will take us through the old parts of Split, discovering Marjan walking trails under the shades of the pine trees, leading us all the way to the top of the Marjan hill to enjoy the view of the islands and Split town.

Learn about the rich history of Split, Marjan Park, the old Jewish cemetery and many more well-hidden secrets of this amazing peninsula.

This tour will take us over and around some of the most beautiful beaches in Split, so be sure to bring your bathing suit to refresh yourself when we arrive!

And finally, we'll climb up a hill for an incredible panoramic view of this city and photos before heading back home.

Minimum number of people is 2, and the minimum age is 8. Kids are always welcomed, they just need to come along with an adult.
